Align, Bleach, Restore...Enhancing the Three Pillars of a Thriving Restorative Practice

with Dr. Marc Geissberger

This comprehensive program is designed to transform your restorative practice into a thriving, sustainable business through a systematic approach to patient care. Dr. Geissberger will guide you through a strategic process that focuses on aligning teeth prior to restorative work, enhancing patient acceptance of whitening procedures, and mastering both direct and indirect restorations. The course will give you the tools to boost productivity, improve patient outcomes, and create lifelike, aesthetic results.

By the end of this program, you will have a clear understanding of how to integrate clear aligner therapy, optimize bleaching protocols, and master restorative techniques that will elevate your practice and patient satisfaction.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Understand the steps required to add clear aligner therapy to any general dental practice
- Learn communication skills for the entire team that helps promote this treatment option to all patients
- Understand which restorative cases would benefit significantly from clear aligner therapy
- Understand the differences between over-the-counter bleaching products and dentist-dispensed products.
- Learn the tricks to simple, beautiful composite restorations with sound bonding and placement techniques
- Learn how to enhance crown and bridge outcomes with sound treatment planning, modern ceramics, and appropriate cements

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This lecture is designed for all dental professionals interested in providing their patients with the best possible treatments and improving efficiency in their practice.
